

CAAASA is a non-profit organization whose mission is to identify and to address the critical issues in education through public policy relative to the status and performance of African-American students in California.

“Salute To Excellence” Awards Gala SPONSORSHIP REQUEST

On Thursday, February 23, 2012 the California Association of African-American Superintendents and Administrators (CAAASA) will host its annual fundraising Awards Gala at the Hilton Sheraton Arden West Hotel in Sacramento California at 7:00 p.m., with the reception starting at 5:00 p.m. CAAASA will pay tribute to a corporation and several individuals who have made exemplary contributions and demonstrated leadership in the field of education. At this year’s “Salute to Excellence” Awards Gala our honorees are: District 2 Supervisor, Dr. Mark Ridley-Thomas; Stanford Professor Dr. Linda-Darling Hammond; Attorney General Kamala Harris; Assemblyman Mike Davis and Assemblywoman Wilma Carter; former State Superintendent, Jack O’Connell; Publisher, Mr. Hardy Brown; Superintendents Dr. Judy White and Dr. Anthony Smith; and Advance Path, Inc.

CAAASA is continuing outreach to its existing sponsors and seeking new sponsors who are committed to increasing students’ learning opportunities. We need the support of businesses and organizations to help increase the educational progress for all students. By purchasing at least one dinner table at the cost of $1,000 each, CAAASA will be happy to assist you with the selection of conferees, i.e., superintendents, administrators, and school board members to be your invited dinner guest. Also, a percentage of the proceeds you donate will go toward scholarships for three high school seniors. With anticipation of your support, we have attached a Table Reservation Form for your convenience.

Respectfully,

Dwight Bonds,
Executive Director
